CAMPBELL FOOTBALL
BY THE NUMBERS

- 1 -

Kurt Odom became Campbell's first and only All-American to date in 2013, collecting Third Team honors from the Sports Network at full-back.

- 2 -

The Campbell defense has finished in the top-20 in total defense in each of the last two seasons. After ranking fifth in total defense in 2015, the Camels stood 17th in 2016, allowing only 322.1 yards per game.

- 2 -

Two Campbell Football alumni have signed with NFL teams since the program was brought back in 2008. Both signed in 2015 when defensive tackle Greg Milhouse joined the New York Giants and long snapper Danny Dillon signed with the Arizona Cardinals.

- 5 -

The Camels have posted five wins in each of the last three seasons, tied for the second most victories in a single season in the program's nine years (record 6 in 2011). CU went 5-5 in 2016, notching the program's second season at .500 or better.

- 10 -

Campbell heads into its 10th season of football in 2017 (modern era). The Camels brought football back to the Creek in 2008 after a 58 year hiatus.

- 18 -

Since 2013, Camels have been named All-PFL 18 times, including four last season. From 2008-12, Camels were named all-conference 14 times. Additionally, CU owns 43 honorable mention All-PFL nods since 2013.

- 68 -

Former All-PFL running backs De'Shawn Jones and Jared Joyner combined for 68 percent of the Camels' running game over the last two seasons. The duo ran for 2,739 yards and 30 touchdowns in 2015 and 2016 (4,042 team rush yards). CU will have to look elsewhere for that production in 2017.

- 1,038 -

Aaron Blockmon hauled in 1,038 yards receiving in 2016, becoming Campbell's first 1,000 yard receiver. The then redshirt sophomore doubled CU's previous single season marks for yards (previous 497, Jabri Ridenhour, 2014) and touchdowns (previous 5, 3 times) with 10 scores. Heading into his third season, Blockmon is already Campbell's all-time leader in receiving yards (1,491) and receiving touchdowns (15).

OLENGA, BROOKS HONORED IN WEEK 1

Emmanuel Olenga and Jaquan Brooks were both been named Pioneer Football League Players of the Week in week one. Olenga was named the league's defensive player of the week after posting a school record 4.5 sacks, adding 10 tackles total in the Camels' 2017 opener. Olenga, a redshirt sophomore in his first game as a Camel, also forced and recovered a fumble, sacking MU's Steve Keoni early in the third quarter, giving Campbell the ball back on the Methodist five yard line.

The first year Camel also picked up an honorable mention for STATS FCS National Defensive Player of the Week.

Brooks was named the PFL's special teams player of the week, returning five Methodist punts for a Campbell record 141 yards, adding a touchdown in his 2017 debut. His first punt return of the night went for 53 yards, going to the MU 11. Later in the first quarter, the redshirt sophomore took a punt back 54 yards for the touchdown. The 54 yarder is the second longest punt return in CU history.

Campbell rolled to a 70-0 win over Methodist in its season opener. The Camels tallied the second-largest scoring total and margin of victory in the program's Division I era (since 2008) behind a 76-0 win vs. Apprentice on Sept. 10, 2011.

The shutout marked CU's fourth all-time (since 2008). 10 different Camels found the endzone in the win.

CAMELS ROLL METHODIST 70-0 IN OPENER

Campbell opened the 2017 season with a 70-0 win over Methodist. The Camels raced out to a 49-0 halftime lead, scoring twice on special teams in the first quarter. Ten difference Camels found the endzone in the victory, leading CU to its second-highest point total and scoring margin in the program's modern era (since 2008). Campbell defeated Apprentice 76-0 on Sept. 10, 2011.

Campbell, one of just four FCS programs to hoist 70 or more points in week one, rolled up 434 yards of total offense, averaging 6.9 yards per play, while holding the Division III Monarchs to just 62 yards.

CAMELS NAME 2017 TEAM CAPTAINS

As voted on by their teammates, Campbell has selected its five team captains for the 2017 season. The team votes on two offensive, two defensive and one special teams captain to serve throughout the year.

Senior quarterback Anthony Robbins and redshirt senior offensive lineman Brian Stryffeler were picked to represent the offense, while redshirt junior linebacker Jack Ryan and redshirt senior safety Carlos Merritt were chosen from the defense. Redshirt senior linebacker Scott Miller was picked as the special teams captain.

CAMPBELL TO JOIN BIG SOUTH IN 2018

Campbell University will join the Big South Conference as a football member effective the 2018 season. Campbell President J. Bradley Creed made the announcement Monday, Nov. 14, at Gore Arena upon the recommendation of the Board of Trustees.

The University's Board of Trustees unanimously approved the motion for Campbell, already a Big South affiliate in 18 other sports. The Camels will be immediately eligible to compete for the Big South Championship beginning in the fall of 2018.

Current Big South Conference football membership includes core members Charleston Southern University (Charleston, S.C.), Gardner-Webb University (Boiling Springs, N.C.), Liberty University (Lynchburg, Va.) and Presbyterian College (Clinton, S.C.), plus associate football-only institutions Kennesaw State University (Kennesaw, Ga.) and Monmouth University (West Long Branch, N.J.). North Alabama (Florence, Ala.) will join the league as an associate member in 2019.

The Camels have made their home in the PFL since rebooting their football program in 2008 after a 58 year hiatus from the sport.

CAMELS PICKED FIFTH IN PFL PRESEASON POLL

Campbell has been voted fifth in the 2017 Pioneer Football League Preseason Coaches' Poll, announced Monday by the conference.

The Camels, who were also picked fifth in the 2016 poll, tied with Jacksonville in a narrow vote. Campbell and JU (62 points), along with Marist (3rd, 69 points) and Drake (4th, 67 points) were separated by just seven points in the polling.

San Diego was predicted to win the league for the seventh consecutive year, picking up nine of the 11 available first place votes. The Toreros won the 2016 regular season title and advanced to the second round of the FCS Championship.

BLOCKMON NAMED PRESEASON ALL-PFL

A year after leading the conference in receiving yards, Campbell's Aaron Blockmon has been named to the 2017 Preseason All-Pioneer Football League team.

The redshirt junior was named First Team All-PFL in 2016, becoming the Camels' first 1,000 yard receiver with a league leading 1,038 yards and 10 touchdowns, both Campbell records. Blockmon surpassed the 100 receiving yards mark six times on the season, hauling in a touchdown in each of his final five games.

The Sanford, N.C. native is already Campbell's all-time leader in receiving yards (1,491) and receiving touchdowns (15) after just two seasons on the field.

See the full 2017 Preseason All-PFL team at Pioneer-Football.org.

CU SETS ATTENDANCE RECORDS IN 2016

It was a record breaking season at Barker-Lane Stadium, with Campbell setting multiple attendance records. The Camels averaged 5,523 fans per game, more than Barker-Lane Stadium's 5,500 seat capacity, far surpassing its previous record high of 4,928, set in 2014. CU also set a total attendance mark with 33,138 fans through the gates, breaking the 2014 mark of 29,567.

Barker-Lane Stadium's top two attendances in its nine year history came in 2016, including a record 6,673 on Oct. 22 against Stetson. 6,610 witnessed Campbell's overtime win over Butler on Sept. 24

Campbell was one of four FCS programs to average a sellout in 2016, averaging 100.42 capacity percentage, joined by Mercer (110.17), Montana State (100.73) and Montana (100.63).

Campbell ranked second in the PFL in average attendance, just behind Morehead State's 5,736 average and 34,415 total.

BLOCKMON RETURNS AS CU'S ALL-TIME LEADING RECEIVER

After just two seasons on the field for the Camels, redshirt junior Aaron Blockmon is already Campbell's all-time leading receiver. The Sanford, N.C. native became the Camels' first 1,000 yard receiver in 2016 with a PFL leading 1,038 yards and 10 touchdowns, taking home First Team All-PFL honors.

Last season, the then redshirt sophomore doubled CU's previous single season marks for yards (previous 497, Jabri Ridenhour, 2014) and touchdowns (previous 5, 3 times) with 10 scores. Heading into his third season, Blockmon is already Campbell's all-time leader in receiving yards (1,491) and receiving touchdowns (15).

RECENT DEFENSIVE SUCCESS

Campbell's defense has ranked in the top-20 in the nation in each of the last two seasons.

The Camels ranked fifth in the nation in total defense in 2015 (279.3 per game), standing third in team sacks per game (3.55) and ninth in scoring defense (17.7). The team shattered program records for all three categories, adding single season marks for tackles for loss (85.0) and total sacks (38.0).

In 2016, Campbell stood 17th in the country in total defense, allowing only 322.1 yards per game. CU ranked 27th in rush defense (129.0) and 35th in passing yards allowed (193.1). For the fourth time in three years, a member of the CU defensive line was named First Team All-PFL (Syd Holt). Camels look to replenish backfield

Former Campbell standouts De'Shawn Jones and Jared Joyner completed their collegiate careers in 2016. The pair combined for 68 percent of the Camels' running game over the last two seasons, running for 2,739 yards and 30 touchdowns in 2015 and 2016 (4,042 team rush yards) combined.

Jones led the conference in rushing, becoming Campbell's first 1,000 back, and was named First Team All-PFL in 2015, adding 641 yards on the ground in 2016 before being sidelined due to injury. Joyner was named Second Team All-PFL in 2016, logging 741 yards and eight touchdowns.

CU will have to look elsewhere for that production in 2017, likely turning to a newcomer to shoulder the load in Rocky Reid, a Wake Forest transfer. Campbell's top returning rushing threat is sophomore Darius Barnes, who ran for 90 yards and a touchdown on 17 carries in three games before an injury cut his freshman season short. Redshirt sophomores Joshua Jones and Kahlil Dixon, as well as redshirt freshmen Sammie Cunningham and Montel Goods will also enter the mix.

MIKE MINTER

HEAD COACH • 5TH YEAR NEBRASKA '97

Former Carolina Panthers standout and Nebraska Football Hall of Famer Mike Minter heads into his fifth season as head football coach at Campbell University in 2017.

In Minter's fourth season at the helm in 2016, Campbell went 5-5 on the year, notching the program's second season at .500 or better in its nine year history, and ranked third in the PFL in rushing offense, standing 19th nationally at 209 yards per game, as well as 17th in the country in total defense (322.1 yards per game). Wide receiver Aaron Blockmon also led the PFL in receiving yards (1,038) and touchdowns (10).

The Camels ranked fifth in the nation in total defense in 2015 (279.3 per game), standing third in team sacks per game (3.55) and ninth in scoring defense (17.7). The team shattered program records for all three categories, adding single season marks for tackles for loss (85.0) and total sacks (38.0). 16 Camels were honored on the conference's All-PFL teams following the 2015 season, with De'Shawn Jones (RB), Ugonna Awurwoyeye (DL) and Greg Milhouse Jr. (DL) all receiving First Team All-PFL accolades. Jack Ryan was also named PFL Freshman Defensive Player of the Year.

The offseason saw another Campbell first, with defensive tackle Greg Milhouse Jr. (New York Giants) and long snapper Danny Dillon (Arizona Cardinals) both signing NFL contracts.

2014 saw the Camels notch their second-most total and conference wins at 5-7 overall and 4-4 in PFL play. A school record seven Camels, plus eight honorable mentions, were named to the 2014 All-Pioneer Football League teams, including four first teamers. Eight CU student-athletes, with six first team members, were tabbed PFL All-Academic.

In Minter's first season as head coach at CU, the Camels set 21 offensive team records, including rushing yards (2,800), passing yards (2,436), and total offense (5,236). The Camels also established four defensive marks, including sacks (27), and posted three team records on special teams.

Senior Kurt Odom became Campbell's first football All-America selection, earning Third Team honors from the Sports Network. Odom was also named First Team All-PFL while seven Camels took home honorable mention nods. In May 2014, CU quarterback Brian Hudson signed a contract with the Canadian Football League's Calgary Stampeders.

Minter picked up his first win as a collegiate head coach in his home debut as the Camels cruised to a 56-21 triumph over UVA-Wise.

Minter, a member of two national championship teams at Nebraska and the Panthers' 2003 Super Bowl squad, joined the Fighting Camel program after serving as assistant coach at Liberty University in 2012 and Johnson C. Smith University in 2011. He also brought head coaching experience from First Assembly Christian School in Concord, where he guided his teams to 33 victories and two state titles in three seasons.

During his 10-year NFL career, Minter earned a starting safety role six games into his rookie year in 1997, and held that position until he retired after the 2006 season. A second-round draft choice, he helped lead the Panthers to three playoff trips, the 2003 NFC Championship and a berth in Super Bowl XXXVII.

In the Super Bowl against the New England Patriots, Minter suffered a broken left foot in the third quarter, but remained in the game and collected a career-high 18 tackles. At the time of his retirement, he held Panthers franchise records for starts (141), consecutive starts (94), fumble recoveries (11) and interceptions returned for touchdowns (4).

At Liberty, Minter worked as special teams coordinator/assistant defensive coach under head coach Turner Gill. He mentored three 2012 Big South all-conference performers in long snapper Richard Wright, place kicker John Lunsford and punter Grant Bowden. At Johnson C. Smith, Minter served as assistant head coach, defensive passing game coordinator and special teams coordinator, JCSU ranked fifth in the nation in punt return yardage in 2011.

Minter was a two-time national champion at Nebraska (1994 and 1995) where he played linebacker, free safety and strong safety for the Cornhuskers. He was a three-time all-conference performer and was inducted into the Nebraska Football Hall of Fame in 2006. He graduated in 1997 with a Bachelor of Science degree in engineering.

Born Jan. 15, 1974, in Cleveland, Ohio, Minter led the State of Oklahoma in rushing yards (1,589) as a senior at Lawton High School in 1991. He was an all-state performer, National Honor Society member and also averaged 21 points per game on the Lawton basketball team.

In addition to playing and coaching football, Minter is CEO of Minter Enterprises, a multi-faceted business impacting real estate development, general contracting and construction, business consultation, publishing, public speaking engagements and a non-profit organization focused on youth development.

Minter and his wife Kim have four children – Michael Jr., Isaiah, McKenna and Brianna.
